Instructions for Raffle and Bingo Applications

Please Read Carefully

Raffle and Bingo License Applications

- 1) Submit the LGCCC (Legalized Games of Chance Control Commission) raffle or bingo application in triplicate with original signatures and notarized, to Livingston Township, at least six to eight weeks prior to the event.
- 2) Make sure your organization's LGCCC biennial registration is current and you have it available for inspection when submitting the application to the Township. You will need to have that identification number for your application, please click on the attached link if you do not have this:
<https://www.njconsumeraffairs.gov/lgccc/Applications/Initial-Affidavit-and-Application-for-Biennial-Registration.pdf>
- 3) A "Background Check Form" must be included with the application for individuals listed in Parts F (members who will be in charge) and G (members who will assist). If the member is a resident of Livingston, please return the background check form to the Livingston Township Clerk's office. If the member is not a resident of Livingston, please get the background check form signed by the Police Department where he/she resides and return to Livingston Township's Clerk's office.
- 4) Sample raffle tickets should be attached to the application for off-premises game(s).
- 5) See the fee chart below for appropriate fees accompanying the application. Two checks will need to be submitted, one to the Legalized Games of Chance Control Commission and the other to the Township of Livingston.
- 6) For additional information, forms, and reports, please visit the LGCCC's website:
<https://www.njconsumeraffairs.gov/lgccc/Pages/applications.aspx>

Checklist for Raffle and Bingo Applications

Use the checklist below to ensure a raffle/bingo license will be issued in time for your event:

- Submit the complete raffle/bingo application to the Clerk's Department at least six to eight weeks in advance of the event.
- The organization's LGCCC biennial registration must be current, and the original available for inspection with the application at submission.
- Part A (General), section 3, fill out the date(s) and hours of the games, AND include the type of game being held if submitting a raffle application.
- If it's an off-premise raffle event, there must be a sample ticket included.
- For all casino nights/armchair races/non-draw (games and wheels) raffles, a Form 13 is required. It is supplied to the organization by the Raffle Equipment Providers.
- For all bingo applications where the premises are rented a Form 10-A, Statement of Landlord, and a Declaration of Trust are required.
- Part B (Schedule of Expenses) needs to be completed, the application will be rejected if left blank.
- Part D (Schedule of Prizes), for a bingo application, attach a schedule of games to be conducted.
- Parts F and G (Members in Charge/Members Assisting), include completed background check forms for all people listed in these two sections.
- Part I (Statement of Applicant and member(s) in charge), must have signatures of the organization's Officer and all Members in Charge. If the Officer is also a Member in Charge, please sign twice on the appropriate lines.
- Payment to the Township of Livingston and the LGCCC must be included.
- Do not include the "Report of Operations" with your application; the applicant files this report directly with the LGCCC no later than the 15th day of the month following the conduct of the game(s) of chance.
- Provide organization's contact name, phone number and email address in case there are any questions.
