What is Livingston For All?

Livingston For All is a new initiative to make the Township of Livingston more inclusive of people of all abilities and foster an environment where everyone can meet their full potential.

What is an Inclusive Healthy Community?

An inclusive, healthy community is one where:

- The social and physical environments are welcoming and free of barriers.
- Efforts are advanced to change policies, systems, and environments to be more inclusive.
- People with disabilities are active participants in decisions affecting all aspects of the community.
- Health and wellness of all community members is prioritized.

Survey Topics:

- Barriers experienced in community life. This includes physical, communication, transportation, attitudinal, and other types of barriers that make it difficult to fully engage in community activities.
- Involvement in making community decisions about:
 - Removing barriers in public spaces.
 - How community events and programs are conducted and communicated.
 - General policies for a town.
- Suggested actions for change.
